The Rent Stabilization Division has a limit of 115 calendar days to consider an application for rent adjustments unless the delay is caused by or is requested by the applicant. The time begins once the application is deemed complete; any appeal filed must be considered within this period. It is possible, however, for the applicant of a rent adjustment proceeding to waive this time limit. Such a waiver may be desirable to permit a continuation of the proceedings or to accommodate scheduling needs

I certify that I have read the above provision and expressly waive my right to have a determination made on my application within this time limit.

I waive the 115-day time limit in its entirety.

I agree to extend the 115-day deadline by _____ days.

Regulation 60007 allows for an applicant to waive the 115-day time limit for consideration of the application set forth in Section 17.44.020(6). Such waiver shall be submitted on a form prescribed by the Director and approved by the City Attorney as to form. Such waiver may specify an extension of the 115-day time period by a stated number of days, or may waive the time limit in its entirety. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the filing of more than one such waiver by applicant.
