

Upcoming Art Events

5/28/09

What's New?

Art and Design Walk: On Saturday, May 30 from 4-8 pm come celebrate art, fashion and design in the premiere design district of Los Angeles on Melrose Avenue, Robertson Blvd, Beverly Blvd and San Vicente Blvd. Enjoy free open studio tours, book signings, artist receptions, product launches, wine tasting and food sampling. For more information, please visit: www.avenuesartdesign.com.

The Los Angeles Doctors Symphony Orchestra, under the baton of music director, Ivan Shulman, will perform at Fiesta Hall in Plummer Park, West Hollywood on Saturday, May 30 at 3:00 pm with acclaimed cello soloist, Paul Wiancko. Fiesta Hall is located at 1200 N. Vista Street, West Hollywood, CA 90046. Admission is free but donations are appreciated. Parking is free. For more information, call (323) 848-6535 or contact www.ladso.org.

West Hollywood Structures & Style: Hotels on the Cutting Edge of Design:

Sponsored by the City of West Hollywood and the West Hollywood Marketing and Visitors Bureau, this guided tour on Saturday, May 30 from 11am-3pm will feature design, art and culinary tasting from six hotel properties with avant-garde architectural and interior design. Participating hotels are the Andaz West Hollywood; The London West Hollywood; Palihouse Holloway; Mondrian; Sunset Marquis Hotel & Villas; and The Sunset Tower Hotel. Tickets are $75 per person. For more information, please call (323) 874-0018 or visit www.whchc.org. TTY for the deaf and hard of hearing at (323) 848-6496.

Showtime-Katusha: The Showtime-Katusha Dance Studio presents its 10th Anniversary Gala Concert on Sunday, May 31 at 3 pm at Fiesta Hall in Plummer Park. This event is funded, in part, with an Arts Participation Grant from the City of West Hollywood. For additional information, please visit www.showtime-katusha.com or (323) 547-2559.

Manalogues: Transgender funnyman Ian Harvey presents a truthful, heartbreaking, and hilarious look at lives and stories of butches and trans men. 8 pm on Wednesday, June 3 at The Village at Ed Gould Plaza, 1125 N. McCadden Place, Los Angeles 90038. More information: www.lagaycenter.org.

Visit www.weho.org/pride

Your destination for LGBT arts, culture and entertainment

Join the City of West Hollywood in celebrating June 2009 as Pride Month. West Hollywood Pride Month builds upon the historic beginnings of Pride with its roots in the social and political struggles of the LGBT community via arts and cultural activities and broader understanding of Pride as a component of community and civic involvement. Visit www.weho.org/pride to check out more than 25 different arts and cultural events that celebrate the LGBT community.

One City. One Pride.

Be a part of the celebration and enjoy the artistic and cultural spirit of the LGBT community in West Hollywood by attending these performances, exhibits and events presented by arts, cultural and community organizations.

Coming Attractions

The Legacy of Harvey Milk: Join us on Saturday, June 6 at 1:30 pm as we explore the legacy of Harvey Milk, from his early days of community organizing to the recent portrayal of him as a hero of mythic proportion in a major motion picture. This event will feature a digital photography presentation by Daniel Nicoletta, one of Harvey Milk's first employees, who will share intimate memories and photos from his vast collection; a screening of film featurettes, including behind-the-scenes footage from the film, Milk; an archival video display; and a panel discussion of Milk's historic position in American culture and the legacy of his organizing spirit. Confirmed panelists include Daniel Nicoletta, Mark Thompson, Malcolm Boyd, Frank Pancucci, and Patricia Nell Warren. Dessert reception will follow the panel. Event runs from 1:30 - 5 pm. Located at the Pacific Design Center Silver Screen Theatre, 8687 Melrose Ave., West Hollywood, CA 90069. While the event is free, reservations are recommended: please click here to register. For more information call (323) 848-6883.

Out There: Los Angeles Art Association & the City of West Hollywood are proud to announce Out There, a very special exhibition celebrating the LGBT experience during West Hollywood's Pride Month Festivities. The show dates are June 11 through June 17. Out There is made possible by the City of West Hollywood Arts Grant Program. More info at www.laaa.org.

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles at Fairfax High School: On Thursday, June 11 a one hour free community program will feature selections from the Gay Men's Chorus summer concert which will be performed later in the month. Performance begins at 6:30 pm. Fairfax High School Band opens at 6:45 pm and GMCLA takes the stage from 7 – 8 pm. Fairfax High School is located at 7850 Melrose Ave Los Angeles, CA 90046. For more information visit www.gmcla.org or call 1-800-MENSING. This performance is funded in part by a grant through the City of West Hollywood's Arts Grant Program.

United Arts Academy presents Having Your Cake by Jimmy Brunelle, a music fairy tale for children and adults, produced and directed by Mark Zisman; and a "Day of Improvisation and Works in Progress," produced and directed by Michael Heit and Gary Maxwell. Sunday, June 14 at 2 pm at Fiesta Hall in West Hollywood, 1200 N. Vista Avenue. Admission is free. This performance is funded in part by a grant through the City of West Hollywood's Arts Grant Program. Information: (323) 436-2993 or marzisman@gmail.com.

Summer Sounds Opening Concert: The first concert of the City of West Hollywood's Summer Sounds program will take place on Sunday, June 14 at 4 pm at Kings Road Park, 1000 N. Kings Road, West Hollywood, featuring Star Search winner and vocalist Catte Adams performing the songs of gay composers and artists. Catte Adams, a West Hollywood resident, first came to recognition nationally with her winning of Star Search with Ed MacMahon, as vocalist, in its second and most viewed season. She has toured internationally with Michael Bolton, Natalie Cole, Yanni, Chaka Khan and Tracy Chapman as a band member and has provided vocals for a who's who of performers including Michael McDonald, Phoebe Snow, Elton John, Stevie Wonder, and many others.

Vox Femina Los Angeles will be doing an "open reading and presentation" in conjunction with honoring the history of women in West Hollywood on Tuesday, June 23 at 7:30 pm at Congregation Kol Ami, 200 N. La Brea Avenue, West Hollywood, 90038. This project is funded in part by a grant through the City of West Hollywood's Arts Grant Program.