

Featured This Week

Saturday, April 17, 2010, 11:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m.—West Hollywood Park, 647 N. San Vicente Blvd., West Hollywood. 25th Anniversary of Cityhood Community Celebration—Celebrate 25 years of Cityhood with two stages of live entertainment! An official Cityhood Ceremony and day-long entertainment including recognition of this year's Public Safety Award recipients, and the Russian Style Festival programming celebrating the City's large Russian-speaking community are the day's highlights. A Kids' Fair and Public Safety Fair, as well as a Community Resources Area will also be featured. Admission is free. Free Cityline shuttle service will be available between Plummer Park and West Hollywood Park. For more information, please call the City's Recreation Services and Special Events Division at 323/848-6307.

This Week's Events

Through May 16, 2010, Th-Sa 8:00 p.m., Su 7:00 p.m.—Coast Playhouse, 8325 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. The Boys in the Band—First produced for the stage in 1968, The Boys in the Band is a dramedy that focuses on the personal mores and identity politics of a group of gay friends at a private birthday party in Manhattan. Visit https://www.plays411.net/newsite/show/play_info.asp for tickets and information or call 323/960-7780.

April 16-25, 2010, F-Sa 8:00 p.m., Su 7:00 p.m.—Renberg Theatre, LA Gay & Lesbian Center's Village at Ed Gould Plaza, 1125 N. McCadden Place, Los Angeles. Paved Paradise: The Art of Joni Mitchell—Performance artist John Kelly brings his highly acclaimed theatrical homage to the music of the legendary singer/songwriter Joni Mitchell to Los Angeles. The show's concept is daringly simple: Joni in concert, with Kelly on vocals, guitar and dulcimer, backed by piano and bass. The "score" is an array of songs from various stages of Mitchell's career; the "book" is composed of her actual words, culled from interviews and pirated concert recordings. Visit www.lagaycenter.org/boxoffice for tickets and information.

Through July 15, 2010—Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Pysanky in Plummer Park—The City of West Hollywood, in partnership with the Craft and Folk Art Museum bring pysanky, painted Ukrainian eggs, to Plummer Park as part of a region-wide installation of folk and craft objects titled Folk Art Everywhere. See these tiny treasures near the reception desk inside the Plummer Park Community Center and pick up more information about Folk Art Everywhere.

Ongoing and Coming Soon

Through April 16, 2010, F-Sa 8:00 p.m., Su 7:00 p.m.—Greenway Court Theatre, 544 N. Fairfax Blvd., West Hollywood. Salam Shalom—Witness the journey of a love affair that is trying to survive all taboos. Tickets can be purchased online at www.salamshalomtheplay.com and visit www.greenwayartsalliance.org for more information.

Through April 18, 2010, Th-Sa 8:00 p.m., Su 7:00 p.m.—Macha Theatre, 1107 N. Kings Road, West Hollywood. THE BLVD—What happens when egos collide in a comic parody of two classic films, Sunset Blvd., and Whatever Happened to Baby Jane? Visit www.plays411.net/blvd or call 323/960-1055 for tickets and information.

Just Installed—West Hollywood Standard Hotel, 8300 Sunset Blvd., West Hollywood. Piero Golia's Luminous Sphere—A temporary installation by artist Piero Golia has just landed atop the West Hollywood Standard Hotel. Luminous Sphere is an intervention in the public domain as part of L.A.P.D (Los Angeles Public Domain), LA><ART's Public Art Initiatives with support from ForYourArt, which produces artistic and curatorial interventions in experimental contexts, and is made possible in part by the City of West Hollywood.

Coming Soon—Santa Monica Blvd. & Holloway, West Hollywood. On Route - 66 Lights—In celebration of its 25th Anniversary of Cityhood, West Hollywood celebrates its pre-Cityhood history with a display of vintage neon signs from old Route 66. The City of West Hollywood in collaboration with the Museum of Neon Art presents On Route - 66 Lights. In addition to a display of four large-scale classic neon lights in the City center, a brochure will also be available, providing a tour of other vintage and contemporary neon in the City, as well as providing a brief look at neon, and the City's historic association with Route 66 (Santa Monica Boulevard) and the Sunset Strip.

Arts and cultural affairs information and programming is brought to you by the City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission. For more information on the arts in West Hollywood, visit www.weho.org/arts or call (323) 848-6883.
