

Featured This Week

Through June, 2010, Thurs.-Sat. 8 p.m., Sun. 3 p.m.—
 Celebration Theatre, 7051 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles. The Women of Brewster Place—Featuring an original score of R&B, pop, disco and old school funk, The Women of Brewster Place tells the individual stories of eight very different African-American women in a 1970s housing project struggling with issues of identity, poverty, hope, love and loss. Visit www.celebrationtheatre.com for more information on this critically acclaimed musical from Celebration Theatre.

This Week's Events

Formosa 1140 Honored—The American Institute of Architects (AIA) named West Hollywood's Formosa 1140, an 11-unit condo complex and pocket park, one of the winners of its national housing awards in the multifamily housing category. The AIA received about 200 entries in four housing categories this year. From that pool, 18 winners were honored. Formosa 1140 is also home to artist Karl Saliter's Tree Form, an Urban Art project installed in the pocket park onsite. For more on the AIA's national housing awards visit www.latimes.com/home.

May 12, 2010, 5:30-7:30 p.m.—O-Bar Restaurant & Lounge, 8279 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. West Hollywood Area Artist's Happy Hour—This monthly meeting of artists, gallerists and curators welcomes Lesley Elwood, owner of Elwood and Associates, a public arts consulting firm. She will speak about the GuitarTown project in West Hollywood that will soon be requesting submissions from local artists. The project involves thirty 10 feet high guitars that will be enhanced by artists and exhibited on the Sunset strip. Lesley will discuss the selection process, which will incorporate an opportunity for artists who have not had a previous chance to be involved in the area of public art.

Through May 16, 2010, Thurs.-Sat. 8 p.m., Sun. 7 p.m.—Coast Playhouse, 8325 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. The Boys in the Band—First produced for the stage in 1968, The Boys in the Band is a dramedy that focuses on the personal mores and identity politics of a group of gay friends at a private birthday party in Manhattan. Visit https://www.plays411.net/newsite/show/play_info.asp for tickets and information or call 323/960-7780.

Ongoing Events

Through June 27, 2010, Fri. 4:30-8:30 p.m., Sat.-Sun. 1-5 p.m.—ONE Archives Gallery & Museum, 626 N. Robertson Blvd., West Hollywood. Think Inside the Box—Self-described “Austrian-Jewish-Lesbian artist with Italian overtones,” Dwora Fried creates provocative works which examine the constructs of the personal and the subconscious while using memory and imagination to transport the viewer in dreamscapes and collage. For more information, visit www.onearchives.org.

Through July 15, 2010—Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Pysanky in Plummer Park—The City of West Hollywood, in partnership with the Craft and Folk Art Museum bring pysanky, painted Ukrainian eggs, to Plummer Park as part of a region-wide installation of folk and craft objects titled Folk Art Everywhere. See these tiny treasures near the reception desk inside the Plummer Park Community Center and pick up more information about Folk Art Everywhere.

Coming Soon

May 22, 2010, 7 p.m.—Fairfax High School, 7850 Melrose Ave., West Hollywood. The Harvey Milk Schools Project—Join the Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles for the premiere of a new work for schools, mixing music and Harvey's inspiring story to create a powerful antidote to anti-LGBT bullying. Funded in part by the City of West Hollywood Arts Grant Program and presented in honor of the City of West Hollywood's 25th Anniversary. For more information call 1-800/636-7464 ext. 2 or visit www.gmcla.org.

Opening May 22, 2010 through June 12, 2010, Fri. 7 p.m., Sat. 2 p.m. & 7 p.m., Sun. 2 p.m.—Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Small Craft Warnings—Classical Theatre Lab presents Small Craft Warnings by Tennessee Williams, a play that centers on a motley group of people gathered in a seedy, coastal, Southern California bar. Visit www.classicaltheatrelab.org for more information.

Through November, 2010—Santa Monica Blvd. & Holloway and Plummer Park, West Hollywood. On Route - 66 Lights—In celebration of its 25th Anniversary of Cityhood, West Hollywood celebrates its pre-Cityhood history with a display of vintage neon signs from old Route 66. The City of West Hollywood in collaboration with the Museum of Neon Art presents On Route - 66 Lights. In addition to a display of three large-scale classic neon lights in the City center, and one at Plummer Park, a brochure will also be available, providing a tour of other vintage and contemporary neon in the City, as well as providing a brief look at neon, and the City's historic association with Route 66 (Santa Monica Boulevard) and the Sunset Strip.

Arts and cultural affairs information and programming is brought to you by the City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission. For more information on the arts in West Hollywood, visit www.weho.org/arts or call 323/848-6883.