Coming Soon

May, 2010—Santa Monica Blvd. & Holloway and Plummer Park, West Hollywood. On Route - 66 Lights—In celebration of its 25th Anniversary of Cityhood, West Hollywood celebrates its pre-Cityhood history with a display of vintage neon signs from old Route 66. The City of West Hollywood in collaboration with the Museum of Neon Art presents On Route - 66 Lights. In addition to a display of three large-scale classic neon lights in the City center, and one at Plummer Park, a brochure will also be available, providing a tour of other vintage and contemporary neon in the City, as well as providing a brief look at neon, and the City's historic association with Route 66 (Santa Monica Boulevard) and the Sunset Strip.

June 6, 2010, 4 p.m.—Fiesta Hall, Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. The Case of Offenbach—Presented by the Unity in Diversity Arts Foundation, this musical parody takes place in a modern courtroom. The judge accuses Operetta and her followers of vulgar taste, of having a bad influence on the people, and of the destruction of the foundation of serious music. Operetta cannot be present, so her representatives, five famous composers—Offenbach, Strauss, Legar, Kalman, and Plankett—try to defend her. The testimony of each of these advocates helps solve the question: is Operetta guilty or not? Dear spectator, your voice has crucial importance in this duel. Please understand that the scale of your applause has a direct impact on the final verdict. For more information call 323/788-5922 or visit www.uidarts.org.

Ongoing Events

Through June 27, 2010, Fri. 4:30-8:30 p.m., Sat.-Sun. 1-5 p.m.—ONE Archives Gallery & Museum, 626 N. Robertson Blvd., West Hollywood.

Think Inside the Box—Self described “Austrian-Jewish-Lesbian artist with Italian overtones,” Dwora Fried creates provocative works which examine the constructs of the personal and the subconscious while using memory and imagination to transport the viewer in dreamscapes and collage. For more information, visit www.onearchives.org.

Through July 15, 2010—Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Pysanky in Plummer Park—The City of West Hollywood, in partnership with the Craft and Folk Art Museum bring pysanky, painted Ukrainian eggs, to Plummer Park as part of a region-wide installation of folk and craft objects titled Folk Art Everywhere. See these tiny treasures near the reception desk inside the Plummer Park Community Center and pick up more information about Folk Art Everywhere.

Through June, 2010, Thurs.-Sat. 8 p.m., Sun. 3 p.m.—Celebration Theatre, 7051 Santa Monica Blvd., Los Angeles. The Women of Brewster Place—Featuring an original score of R&B, pop, disco and old school funk, The Women of Brewster Place tells the individual stories of eight very different African-American women in a 1970s housing project struggling with issues of identity, poverty, hope, love and loss. Visit www.celebrationtheatre.com for more information on this critically acclaimed musical from Celebration Theatre.

Through July 3, 2010, Fri.-Sat. 8 p.m., Sun. 2 p.m.—Marilyn Monroe Theatre at the Lee Strasberg Creative Center, 7936 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Behind the Gates—Wendy Graf's gripping mystery is a parent's worst nightmare when 17-year old Bethany disappears while on a school trip to Israel. As her parents feverishly search throughout Jerusalem for their daughter, they find themselves lost in a hidden world where ancient and modern collide, conflicting cultures and politics clash, and extreme orthodoxies and passionate feelings of nationalism try to coexist while growing more volatile with each passing day. Visit www.plays411.com/gates for reservations.

Congratulations!

Formosa 1140 Honored—The American Institute of Architects (AIA) named West Hollywood's Formosa 1140, an 11-unit condo complex and pocket park, one of the winners of its national housing awards in the multifamily housing category. The AIA received about 200 entries in four housing categories this year. From that pool, 18 winners were honored. Formosa 1140 is also home to artist Karl Saliter's Tree Form, an Urban Art project installed in the pocket park onsite.
