

Featured This Week

Through June 30, 2010—Throughout West Hollywood. 2010 One City / One Pride Celebration—June is recognized as Pride Month by the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender (LGBT) community worldwide. Events are held in June to commemorate the anniversary of the Stonewall Rebellion in New York City on June 28, 1969, which most historians consider to be the birth of the modern LGBT civil rights movement. The City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission, Lesbian and Gay Advisory Board and the Transgender Advisory Board invite you to celebrate the many cultural contributions of the LGBT community via a variety of arts, cultural and community events. Visit www.weho.org/pride for more information.

This Week's Events

McCadden Pl., Los Angeles. Trans-Unity Pride—A multi-cultural, substance free celebration of the Southern California regional transgender community and those who love and care for them. For complete information on Trans-Unity Pride events, visit www.weho.org/pride.

MACHA Theatre Company

June 5-18, 2010, Thurs.-Sat 8 p.m. & 9:30 p.m., Sun. 7 p.m. & 8:30 p.m.—MACHA Theater, 1107 N. Kings Rd., West Hollywood. Hepburn Sings and Booze, Boys & Bitches—MACHA Theatre & Films present an evening of unique cabaret style solo performances by Kevin Dulude and Lana Harper. Produced and directed by Odalys Nanin. For more information call 323/314-6332 or visit www.machatheatre.org.

June 6, 2010, 4 p.m.—Fiesta Hall, Plummer Park, 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. The Case of Offenbach—Presented by the Unity in Diversity Arts Foundation, this musical parody takes place in a modern courtroom. The judge accuses Operetta and her followers of vulgar taste, of having a bad influence on the people, and of the destruction of the foundation of serious music. Operetta cannot be present, so her representatives, five famous composers— Offenbach, Strauss, Legar, Kalman, and Plankett—try to defend her. The testimony of each of these advocates helps solve the question: is Operetta guilty or not? Dear spectator, your voice has crucial importance in this duel. Please understand that the scale of your applause has a direct impact on the final verdict. For more information call 323/788-5922 or visit www.uidarts.org.

June 8, 2010, 7 p.m.—Fiesta Hall, Plummer Park 7377 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. Tennessee Williams Symposium—Classical Theatre Lab presents a look at Tennessee Williams' times and experiences in Hollywood/West Hollywood. Sponsored in part by the City of West Hollywood Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission, the Lesbian and Gay Advisory Board and the Transgender Advisory Board. For more information call 323/960-5691 or visit www.classicaltheatrelab.org.

June 9, 2010, 5:30-7:30 p.m.—O-Bar Restaurant and Lounge, 8279 Santa Monica Blvd., West Hollywood. West Hollywood Area Artist's Happy Hour—This month "15 minutes with..." features Hillary Metz. In 2009 Hillary opened her gallery, Blythe Projects, in Culver City, which she describes as a freewheeling hybrid of painters, musicians, poets and filmmakers. She is excited about having recently curated the "Out There" exhibit for Gallery 825, which will run from June 11 to June 17, 2010 during Pride Month - One City/One Pride. "15 minutes with..." is a program to invite a person of interest from the arts community to spend 15 minutes, within the two hour time we have, to talk about themselves, their work, or anything else they might care to expound on.
