Through December 26, 2010, Fri. 4:30 p.m.-8:30 p.m. & Sat.-Sun. 1 p.m.-5 p.m.—ONE Archives Gallery & Museum, 646 N. Robertson Blvd., West Hollywood. The Glamorous Gaze: Portraits by Mark A. Vieira, 1973-1983—The period following Gay Liberation and preceding AIDS was much like the Roaring Twenties, a time of experimentation, insanity, and self-expression. Mark A. Vieira used his technique-view camera, incandescent lights, and pencil retouching-to glamorize subjects he found at Studio One and Circus. This look at the gay disco era has a unique perspective, that of an artist capturing his peers with a lost idiom. For more information, visit the Facebook page dedicated to the exhibition.

Arts and cultural affairs information and programming is brought to you by the City of West Hollywood through its Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission. For more information on the arts in West Hollywood, visit www.weho.org/arts or call 323/848-6883.
