WORKSHOPS

West Hollywood Public Access (WHPA)

Check out our calendar for the schedule of workshops. You must be a West Hollywood Resident to participate in our program. Most Workshops are 1.5 to 2 hours long. RSVP is required for all workshops as space is limited.

Orientation - This workshop is required for all new members that would like to get involved with the City of West Hollywood's Public Access station. You will be introduced to our policies and guidelines and have the opportunity to ask questions before joining the program. You must be a West Hollywood resident to participate.

Community Studio Night - This 90-minute workshop is open to anyone. The first 30 minutes are a crash course on the basics of the studio, then we film a show, whether it's a community game night, talk show or musical act.

Studio Workshop - This workshop is required for all participants who want to produce or work on a show in the Studio. The Studio Workshop is a two-part workshop going over all parts of working on a studio show. You must be able to attend both sessions to sign up.
Prerequisites: Orientation and Membership (Producer, Associate, or Company Member)

Editing Workshop - Learn the basics of Premiere Pro, DaVinci Resolve or Final Cut. This workshop is scheduled as requested for individual members.
Prerequisites: Orientation and Membership (Producer, Associate, or Company Member)

Field Camera Workshop - Learn the basics of using our Field Camera Equipment. This is required if you would like to check out our Field Camera packages for your productions. This workshop is scheduled as requested for individual members.
Prerequisites: Orientation and Membership (Producer, Associate, or Company Member)

RSVP is required for all workshops as space is limited!

To RSVP, please email whpa@weho.org.

West Hollywood Public Access (WHPA)

West Hollywood Public Access has been established by the City of West Hollywood to facilitate communication and stimulate dialogue among the residents and participants in the City using the television medium, by providing access to cable television via the Public Access Channel, and access to television production equipment and training via the Public Access Production Program to produce programs for the channel.

Who Can Submit Programming to West Hollywood Public Access?

You must be a West Hollywood resident and a member in good standing to submit programming for air on our channel

How Can I Submit Programming to West Hollywood Public Access?

We are currently only accepting digital submissions. We accept most file types, but prefer mp4.

1. Fill out a Cablecast Request Form. You can access our form at www.weho.org/whpa (Forms >Cablecast Request Form).
2. Send a secure link of your submission files to whpa@weho.org using your preferred transfer method, such as Vimeo and Dropbox.
3. You will be notified via email once your programming request has been approved.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions at whpa@weho.org or (323) 848-6522.
